

Please do not allow media giants to buy all the stations that are playing local and unsigned bands. If these stations are gone there will be no way for a local band to get their music out. Unless they decide to start a pirate station.